- The ratings were developed for markets where occupational safety standards and regulations have been enacted and enforced.
- In some cases, determining the occupation classification may be straightforward, such as Clerk or Physician, whilst other occupations may be a little more complex. In such instance, the ratings will be charged based on the particular hazards involved.
- If an applicant has more than one occupation, he/she will usually be rated for the most hazardous and/or occupation that represents the higher risk. Consideration will be given to more favourable rating where the person spends less than 20% of their total work time in the more hazardous occupation. If an applicant indicates that he contemplates entering a more hazardous occupation, he will be rated according to the intended occupation.

13.4 READYCARE RIDER

- Options available (attached to Invest Ready III, a GIO base plan)
  - (i) Term Rider (Death/TI)
  - (ii) Term and Hospitalization Rider (Death/TI + Hospitalization or HI)
  - (iii) Term and All Stages CI Rider (Death/TI + Critical Illness or CI)
  - (iv) All-in-One Rider (Death/TI + HI + CI)
- Full underwriting
- Note: this is an early CI benefit for the purpose of determining whether Singapore residents or foreign residents can apply.
- For option (ii), (iii) and (iv), use 50% of basic sum insured to determine CI/HI sum insured. Example: basic term sum insured $500,000, therefore CI or HI or HI + CI portion is $250,000.
- Hospitalisation option - not available for corporate-owned policies

➤ How to apply the rules

(ii) Term and Hospitalization option (D/TI + HI)

Underwriter will assess the daily hospital income eligible based on the monthly income/20 * 80%.

From here, to apply the daily Hospital Income Benefit multiply by 1000 to determine the amount one can buy for Rider (D/TI+HI) sum insured. If the Daily Hospital Income Benefit is $160, customer can SI $160,000.

The daily hospital income takes into consideration based on existing policies across insurers with hospital income benefits.

Example 1:

Existing Hospital Income (HI) plan with other insurer $100

Monthly income $5000

Eligible HI daily limit -  $$5000/20 \times 80\% = $200$

Current HI daily allowed $100

Customer can purchase Rider $100,000 (DI/TI + HI)

Example 2:

Existing Ready Protect with Hospital Cash $200

Monthly income $10,000

Eligible HI daily limit -  $$10,000/20 \times 80\% = $400$

Current HI daily allowed $200

Customer can purchase $200,000 (DI/TI + HI)

(iii) Term and All Stages CI option (D/TI + CI)

Within existing life and CI limits. Underwriter will assess CI benefits based on existing policies across insurers.

Example:

Assuming after calculation (of existing covers, income multiple and maximum limits), these are the amounts:

Life purchase limit: $1,000,000

CI purchase limit: $200,000

Customer can purchase $400,000 (D/TI+CI), the lower of the 2 limits.

(iv) All-in-One option (D/TI + HI + CI)

This rider pays the condition that occurs first, so apply the lower limit of HI/ CI when determining how much sum insured one can purchase.

Example:

Assuming after calculation, these are the amounts:

Daily HI limit $160 (D/TI+HI: $160,000)

CI limit: $200,000 (D/TI+ CI: $400,000)

Customer can purchase $160,000 (D/TI+HI+CI), the lower of the 2 limits.
